Description

A very attractive quarter striking mantel clock with ormolu decorations on a very well figured Burr Walnut case. The full brass dial shows gilded Spandrels and the silvered Chapter ring. A Fleur de lys Hour hand, matted dial center and bevelled silvered 'sight'. If you know your German clocks, you will know that Lenzkirch Clockmakers were based in Lenzkirch the Municipality in the German Black Forest and are regarded as the very best quality. Take a scroll through the pictures to see how wonderful this clock is. It has quarter striking on two soft gongs. The clock will run for a week on wind.
