Description

A wonderful English late Victorian stationery / letter rack or caddy, made from solid Mahogany and dating to around 1900. What makes this one interesting is it's large size making it a very usable piece today. Stationery in that period was much smaller and make holders are too small for modern day stationery, this one is perfect and a very useful desk-top accessory. The polished wooden dividers are made highly decorative with their scalloped edges Excellent condition, measuring 15" x 6" deep x 8" tall at rear.
