Description

A wonderful and rare opportunity to acquire a matching pair of high styled Art Deco console tables. Very likely these were made by Epstein or Hille, both highly regarded furniture makers of the 1930's. Not only do these tables have superb kerb side appeal but are also highly functional and perfect asset to any interior. Both have black glass insert tops, looks to be vitrolite. Two fluted/ corrugated doors open to three very generously sized pull out drawers. The interior is sycamore and a lovely blonde colour. Each drawers pulls out very smoothly and without effort. The Sweeping u base is accented with ebonized edging and sits on a triangular plinth. Both consoles are in very good condition and have been professionally restored and are offered with FREE UK MAINLAND TWO MAN DELIVERY. Both cabinets are exceptionally heavy so delivery will be to in home ground floor.
