Description

A very decorative 19thC wirework garden arm chair. Well constructed with splayed scrolled feet the chair stands well and is useable but a swab cushion is adviseable. The ironwork is almost completely weathered back but has traces of old green and white paint. The whole is extremely pleasing to the eye and would suit a hall, conservatory or a prominent position in the garden. Width of arms 46 cm Height of the back 86 cm Height of the seat 42 cm Maximum width of the front feet 65 cm Depth of the seat 44 cm Maximum depth of the feet front to back 52 cm OVERSEAS buyers please ask for shipping costs before purchasing.
