Description

This fine Regency miniature depicts a dapper gentleman dressed in a cravat, white shirt and black suit. It's presented splendidly - within an ornate giltwood frame held in a velvet-lined box. Clearly, this was a treasured item. Gentlemen from this period remind us of the ebb and flow of Jane Austen novels and the pulsing undercurrent of societal romance. Is he an outlandish rogue or the one she really wants to marry? Medium: Oil on card Overall size: 7" x 7½" / 17cm x 19cm Year of creation: c. 1820 Condition: Artwork presents well. Box with a little wear.
