Description

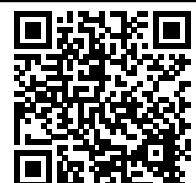

A flamboyantly stunning antique ruby necklace. The nicely substantial yellow gold cable chain is adorned with pear cut ruby drops – all of which are natural, unheated and Thai in origin – which display a deep, strong, slightly purplish red. The stones are rubover set in a yellow gold and sit below ornate silver scroll-work set with four rose cut diamonds. Between each of the ruby drops is a further silver drop, featuring a (slightly larger) rose cut diamond. Extraordinary, impressive and rare. Accompanied by a ruby report from Gemmological Certification Services (GCS) stating the rubies shows no indication of heating. Cut – Pear cut rubies and rose cut diamonds. Colour – The diamonds are I to K. Clarity – The diamonds are VS2 to SI2. Carat – The total approximate ruby weight is 3.50 carat, with approximately 0.42 carat of diamonds. Circa – 1850. Measurements – The chain is 16 inches. The longest drop (centre) is 21.45mm. Metal – The chain is 9k gold. The ruby drops are 18k gold. The diamond drops are silver backed in 18k gold. All tested.
