Description

A good quality pair of mid-19th Century French four light candelabra in gilt metal and porcelain. Each one is differently and naturalistically fashioned as flowers and foliage. They are supported on cobalt blue pear shaped vases which are decorated with garlands of flowers, culminating on gilded square bases. They are very heavy and substantial and in very good condition with no losses. Circa 1850. We can deliver free of charge in UK mainland and can calculate the cost for International delivery. Payment by bank transfer or PayPal.
