Description

A stunning pure silk full length kimono depicting cranes flying through clouds in soft colours with a pure cream silk lining with coral shading round the edge. In Japan, the crane is a national treasure and considered the bird of happiness, in mythology it is a symbol of good luck and longevity because it is said to live 1000 years ! It is in perfect condition and can be worn or displayed as a wall hanging. The width given is edge of sleeve to edge of sleeve so maximum width, the main body is 64 cm across.

Internal Ref: Crane kimono blues
