Description

A good and large Georgian bracket clock, the inverted bell top with a carrying handle, over an arched dial with subsidiary strike silent dial. The matted centre with a cartouche engraved JNo Green London. Within a silvered dial with Roman numerals. The 8 Day movement strikes the hours on a cast bell giving a good clear chime. The fish scale sides, and ogee feet add visual attraction to this clock when viewed from any angle, which can be placed on a bracket, table, or mantle. This fine clock would add to the decor of the finest of homes. For further Clocks of interest please view our website www.frankcraigantiques.com
