williamgreenwoodfineart@gmail.com Ralph Hedley (1848 - 1913) Ralph Hedley was a Newcastle genre painter who worked in both oil and watercolour. He was born in Richmond, Yorkshire in 1848 and studied at the Newcastle School of Art. Later he became the President of the Berwick Club and Northumbrian Art Institute, as well as a Member of the Society of British Artists. The subjects of his paintings are usually scenes of the working lives of ordinary people, from labourers and sailors through to veterans, in his native North East, beauti...
