Description

A wonderful pair of ceramic liquor jugs beautifully formed with the sides of the jugs being modelled to emulate wicker, topped with silver plated collars with integral spout and both retaining their original stoppers with corks. The underside of each flask is printed for the maker Taylor & Tunncliffe and the British design registration number 101826 for the year 1888 which ties in perfectly with this style of backstamp. Each decanter sits in its individual silver plated holder or caddy, each standing on four bun feet and having rope style handles perfectly complimenting the wicker design of the jugs. Each caddy is marked on the underside with the makers mark. A superb and highly sought-after pair both in excellent condition (minor wear to plate and fine crazing on the underside of the jugs, mentioned purely for accuracy). Each flask measures 6 1/2" tall and once in the caddy measures 7" tall and 7" across from handle to handle. Item ID: 32603 ----- FREE Worldwide Registered Airmail Directly From London, England
