Description

George III period mahogany toilet mirror of good figure and colour; the (replaced) oval plate within a crossbanded frame. The serpentine fronted base with three mahogany lined drawers and brass drop-handles, on ogee bracket feet. The frame and base decorated with black-and-white boxwood bandings. A rather nice example of this type of mirror. Circa 1790. John Beazor Antiques is a family firm, established in 1875 and based in Cambridge since 1940. We are a traditional antiques shop, but very much in the 21st century. We deal in 18th and early 19th century furniture, barometers and clocks. We choose our stock for its originality and for the quality of its colour, patination and design. We are members of the BADA. We do not exhibit at fairs preferring to deal from our Cambridge shop where we hold Open Weekends from time to time.
