Description

A pair of French Napoleon III armchairs, late 19th century, with square backs, scroll arms and sprung seats, raised on painted ring turned legs and upholstered in a burnt orange check velour type fabric. In very good overall condition, the springs to the seats are good and the fabric is also good with no stains or damage but is not new and would benefit from a steam clean to freshen but very presentable. I can arrange re-covering with my upholsterer if preferred and also supply fabric - please contact me for further details.
