Description

A lovely pair of French singing birds by Bontems in a brass cage. In good condition for their age, the birds sing beautifully and quite loudly with the Yellow bird replying to the red bird. The red bird moves its beak, head and tail and the yellow bird moves its tail and beak. Both moving in time with their song. Good pure clear voices. The birds feathers are real. A very good example of its kind. We can send a small video of the birds singing on request. We can deliver free of charge in UK mainland and can quote for international delivery. Payment by bank transfer or PayPal.
