Description

This stylish 1920s wrought iron standard lamp retains its original painted & gilded decoration. Its design is simple but very effective, with its height and reach easily adjustable. The wiring and fitting have been changed to reflect its period of manufacture and complement the surface colour. The coolie or empire-style shade is contemporary and was chosen to mirror the wrought iron but not overpower the simplicity of the lamp. This lamp has been fully tested and is ready to be used and enjoyed within your home.
