Description

An attractive Edwardian antique mahogany glass display cabinet. The antique display cabinet has decorative marquetry detail to the top, with a single glass panelled door to the centre. The glass door opens to reveal a white linen lined interior with two fitted shelves. The antique display cabinet has an under tier shelf, raised on four tapering legs with spade feet. A particularly good example. Item Ref; M-4116 . DIMENSIONS: Height – 167cm / Width – 91cm / Depth – 35.5cm . CONDITION REPORT: In good antique condition throughout with some signs of age. There is surface wear in places including age-related marks and scratches to the wooden frame, but very minimal, also stains to the interior shelves (pictured). The glass panels have minor marks (pictured). There is evidence of historical woodworm, however this is now long gone and has been fully treated as a precaution. The antique display cabinet remains structurally solid and sound, with the glass intact. Overall, a clean example. Our carpenter inspects, repairs, and restores our items, so you can have full confidence that what you buy from us is ready for your home! We ask that you take the time to look at all the photos...
