Description

A charming 19th century oak two stage rack back dresser dresser. The antique oak dresser has a boarded rack back with three fitted shelves with metal hanging hooks, flanked by two single glass door cupboards. The glass door cupboards open to reveal a duck egg blue painted interior with two shelves. The dresser base has three fitted drawers each with wooden knobs above a central dog kennel and two single bind panel cupboards. The cupboards open to reveal further shelved storage space. The antique oak dresser separates into two parts at the mid section for ease of transport and movement. A particularly pleasing example, full of authentic wear and charm. Item Ref; M-3088 . DIMENSIONS: Height – 219cm / Width – 161cm / Depth – 42cm / Surface Height - 93cm .

CONDITION REPORT: In good antique condition throughout with some signs of age. There is surface wear in places including age-related marks, scratches, stains and fading to the surface top, shelves and front (pictured). There are minor marks to the glass, however it remains intact with no apparent cracks. There is evidence of historic woodworm, this is now long gone and has been fully treated as a precaution.
