Description

A stylish late 19th century, Arts and Crafts period, pollard oak chest of drawers. Of generous proportions and well constructed in solid oak with attractive pollard oak veneers to the top and drawer fronts. With an arrangement of 2 short over 3 long graduated drawers all fitted with their original brass hardware. The drawer fronts are cross banded. The locks are stamped S P B for Shapland and Petter of Barnstaple. The drawers bear impressed stamps for Jas Shoolbred. We feel that this chest was originally made by Shapland and Petter and then retailed by Shoolbred from their London premises. Sympathetically refinished in our workshops and now offered for sale with a great colour and patina, ready to go straight into the home. Dimensions: Width 122cms Depth 56cms Height 121cms The Shapland and Petter factory was established by cabinetmaker Henry Shapland (1823 – 1909), following a trip to America in 1848. While there, he saw an ingenious new machine which he realised could be used for cabinetmaking. Upon his return to Barnstaple, he reproduced the machine from notes he'd made and set up business in a mill. He later met Henry Petter, an accountant, and together they achieved...
