Description

A good quality cast iron stick stand dating from the late 19th Century. The back has decorative floral panels and a square support for the sticks. It has a rectangular base with its original drip tray. It is a good quality piece in good condition for its age. It has been painted white at some point and this has worn off in places and there are some rust stains showing through but this has given it a lovely aged patina. There are no major damages and it is strong and sturdy. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask. Tracked UK delivery £30
