Description

A charming country oak side table with single drawer dating from the early 19th Century. It has a planked top and stands on narrow chamfered legs. The drawer has brass drop handles. It is in good original condition and the oak has mellowed to give a wonderful warm patina. It is strong and sturdy and the drawer opens well. There are normal signs of age but no major damages and it is a good honest little table. There are various old marks and stains on the top surface which have all added to its patina.
