Description

A useful and elegant piece of furniture with a single drawer and two doors to the base cupboard on a plinth and original small bun feet. The front has great quality flame mahogany veneers and the original working lock and key. The back section has its original mirror with the odd blemish and a lovely sparkle to the backplate. The mirror has well carved supports and an impressive central cartouche. The odd small contraction crack to the sides and a couple of marks to the top under the polish. These are to be expected on a Piece over 150 years old.
