

SA912260

18th Century Jacobite Sympathy Engraved Facet Cut Glass Goblet c1780

Price

SoldItem Reference: SA912260*Date of manufacture: 1750

Dimensions

Height = 18.5 cm (7.3")

Width = 8.5 cm (3.3")

Description

Technical Description A superb 18th-century goblet with a large round funnel bowl which has been beautifully engraved with a Jacobite Carnation, open bud and closed bud with a butterfly on the reverse. Large scale facet cuts to the base of the bowl transitioning into fine hexagonal cuts on the stem. Conical foot with snapped pontil Date & Origin England, c1780. Period of George III Condition Excellent, no chips cracks or restoration. The bowl has a small thin internal annealing line which is approx 1cm long and does not come to the surface. Insignificant and part of the manufacturing process. Dimensions Height: 18.5cm Rim diameter: 8.5cm, Foot diameter: 9.1cm

Internal Ref: 2022050423

Seller Details

Exhibit Antiques

Glasgow Scotland United Kingdom

Tel: 01501 228 282

International Tel: +44 1501 228 282

