Description

Antique Mahogany Single Fusee Four Glass Library Clock With Shaped Top. This lovely antique library clock has a mahogany case with a fantastic rich colour. The top of the case then has a lovely Shaped section topped with a brass finial. The underneath of the carved section is then stepped with three sections followed by a shaped moulding. The body of the case is then square with a glass to the front and back as well as thick bevelled glass to the sides so the movement can be fully seen. The wood on the front door then has a bevelled section surrounding the glass as well as a moulding to the edge. The base then has a further moulding and is finished by four thin feet. The dial is then silvered and set out in black, engraved Roman numerals with a thin ring of dashes to the outside marking the minutes. The top and bottom of the dial is then engraved with a scrolling pattern as well as the centre being engraved with a floral design. The dial then has two lovely shaped hands as well as being finished by a glass and bevelled brass surround in the door. The movement is then a single fusee example of the upmost quality and ticks away as it should! It comes complete with its ...
