Description

A good example of a large antique copper cooking pot dating from the late 19th / early 20th Century. It has a maker's stamp for "C.Buckley - Maker - Warwick". It is good quality and all hand made with two iron handles and a copper lid. Perfect size for storing kindling beside a fire. It is in good original condition and displays well. There are signs of age and use, some dents, dinks and surface marks but nothing untoward. There is a small repair to the bottom (see photo) but otherwise no major damages. It has been lightly cleaned and polished to retain its wonderful aged patina and is ready for use. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask. Tracked UK delivery £15.
