Description

Good early 18th century Queen Anne period Dutch lacquered and painted small size corner cabinet. The two doors and front of the corner cabinet are painted with a Roman scene in very good detail. The corner cabinet has original paint to the inside with shelves. Original fretted brass hinges and original brass bolts. One engraved escution is original the other is later as is the lock which is a Victorian replacement but works with key. The corner cabinet is a nice neat size and is in good condition. The paint work is all original and it has not been later touched up. Very Decorative. SIZE; 15" square by 37" high CIRCA; 1710
