Description

Fine early 19th century regency period Scottish mahogany and inlaid card table almost definitely by WILLIAM TROTTER of EDINBURGH. Solid mahogany base with turned column and four shaped and moulded legs with original super quality brass castors. The main part of the table is beautifully inlaid with calamander with the top similarly inlaid with a thin calamander cross banding. The edges of the table are rounded cross grain mahogany with calamander inlay. The table has gone a beautiful mellow colour with age and has a waxed finish. There is an almost invisible repair to one of the legs and the baize inside obviously requires replacing. This can be done by us if required. SIZE; 36" wide by 18" deep by 28" high CIRCA; 1810
