Description

This beautiful hand made Arts and Crafts necklace comprises a solid silver paperclip chain interspersed with five polished nuggets of turquoise. The silver has a lovely gun-metal patina and each turquoise bead is unique in shape, size and matrix patterning. The English Arts & Crafts movement (c. 1880-1910) championed hand made pieces with an emphasis on craftsmanship and the aesthetics of design to create beauty rather than intrinsically valuable materials such as diamonds. Natural baroque pearls, silver and uncut stones were considered preferable to precious gemstones and peacock colours were especially popular. The necklace is in very good antique condition, with a secure springring clasp. One of the turquoise pieces nearest the clasp is chipped, though still firmly attached to the chain, please see photos. Length: 55cm (approximately 22 inches). Size: The beads are approx 2cm long on average. Weight: 14.7g. FREE INTERNATIONAL SHIPPING! Apologies but we cannot ship to Germany, any orders from Germany will be cancelled and refunded.
