SoldItem Reference: SA913556*Date of manufacture: 1890

Description

A very interesting silver plated travelling cup in the form of a pocket watch. The "pocket watch" opens in the same way as a watch case would. Inside it is lined in red velvet. The case and the cup are both registered designs. Nice Greek key pattern around the base of the cup. The silver plate is in good antique order, minor signs of wear. Opens and shuts well. Late 19th century. Diameter of case 4.5 cm Height of cup 5 cm
