Description

Early 19th century mahogany wheel barometer by J. Gatty, 104 High Holborn, London; the 8" silvered dial contained in a Sheraton style case, inlaid with two attractively stylised sea-shells and two circular paterae, beneath an angled pediment. James Gatty worked at several addresses in High Holborn, Charles Gatty was at No 104 from 1803 - 17. James may have taken over from Charles and retained the address. Circa 1830 John Beazor Antiques is a family firm, established in 1875 and based in Cambridge since 1940. We are a traditional antiques shop, but very much in the 21st century. We deal in 18th and early 19th century furniture, barometers and clocks. We choose our stock for its originality and for the quality of its colour, patination and design. We are members of the BADA. We do not exhibit at fairs preferring to deal from our Cambridge shop where we hold Open Weekends from time to time.
