Description

A stunning example of an 1880s Pad Top Triple Fusee on five gongs, in a beautiful solid mahogany case. Both clock and case have been fully restored with new springs in all three barrels. The case: In solid mahogany and stands 18" high x 12" wide with a depth of 8.5". It is in very good original condition and has been well waxed and maintained over the years, giving the wood a pleasing glossy finish. There are two fully functioning locks, with original keys, on both doors. It stands on solid gilded brass feet and has a solid gilded brass handle atop it. The sheer weight of the clock when lifted will indicate it's quality. The dial: Mint condition with a silvered chapter ring and three subsidiary dials for adjusting the pendulum, 'Chime', and 'Silent', and is signed by the maker's Bennettfink & Co of London. The Roman numerals are also engraved, and the dial covered by a cast brass bezel and thick convex glass. The movement: An eight-day. All quarters and the hour strike, run via gongs. Both movement and strike run via the original matching solid brass bob pendulum. The entire movement has been fully restored in house; ultrasonically cleaned, hand polished, rebuilt with n...
