Description

A rare and interesting miniature oak bureau, mid 18th century. Possible an apprentice piece or it could have been made as a trinket box or child's toy. There are two keys; one for the drawers and one for the fall. The piece is in excellent original condition, although one rear foot looks as if it is an old replacement. DIMENSIONS: 12.5 inches tall, 10.75 inches wide, 8 inches deep. PROVENANCE: From the private collection of a retired Somerset antiques dealer.
