Description

A super deep cut glass inkwell. Wonderful art nouveau silver top, ladies head surrounded by iris and signed P De Bryk. The silver top is marked for London 1904 makers mark Thomas Webb & Sons and they will also have produced the glass base. The original glass inkwell insert is present. Condition is very good, no chips to any of the glass, wear to base as you would expect where it has sat on a surface. The glass is not totally clear, it has a slight yellow tinge to it, not easy to describe. H 11.5 cm Diameter of base 11.5 cm Diameter of silver top 6 cm The inkwell weighs almost 1.7Kg a whopping 4 lbs. I normally offer free delivery, but there will be a delivery charge for this item even to a UK mainland address. Please contact for shipping cost.
