Description

This is an antique marquetry centre table. An English, walnut and burr walnut inlaid side or hall table, dating to the early Victorian period, circa 1850. Boasts a deft elegance to enhance any room. Displaying a desirable aged patina and in good order. Walnut presents fine grain interest and rich caramel hues. Bookmatched burr walnut marquetry top a treat of exquisite figuring. Shaped top sits within an ebonised edge moulding, providing fine contrast. The superb top further enhanced with boxwood inlays of foliate motif. Carved knees with gadrooned craftsmanship frame a shaped apron with further inlay. Raised upon a fluted tapering leg and riding upon a quartet of brass and ceramic castors. This is a delightful antique marquetry centre table, with an exquisite top and superb finish to each fascia for central room placement. Solid joints and construction, delivered waxed, polished and ready for the home. Dimensions: Max Width: 107cm (42.25") Max Depth: 55cm (21.75") Max Height: 73.5cm (29").
