Description

This is a stunning pair of 19th century oil on canvas paintings. The first painting shows a tea set, done in a lighter pallet where as the second painting shows Alcohol and a much darker set of colours. For me this is symbolic of day and night or maybe it is referring to emotion. But whatever the meaning these really are a great talking point. They are very finely painted as well and housed in their original frames. Signed S.B Height 44cm Width 52cm Price includes UK delivery
