Description

A most attractive pair of early 20th century perfume bottles with silver tops. These bottles are identically cut with an intricate diamond and hobnail design, one bottle is hallmarked Chester 1908 and the other Birmingham 1908. The hinged silver tops, which are initialed, lift to reveal the original glass stoppers. This pair of antique scent bottles, which are in very good condition, would be an excellent gift and a glamorous addition to any dressing table. 1908 Height: 4.5" 11.5 cm Width at widest part: 3.5" 9 cm
