Description

This has got to be the perfect grand biscuit / cookie box for the dog lover or the most decadent box for Fido's treats! Dating to around 1870, a true Victorian example made for a top-notch silver plated cradle and a heavy cut crystal box which sits inside; the top crowned with a plated collar and domed hinged lid. The supports around the cradle are classical each topped with a Ram's head. Of course what makes this an exceptional example are the two dog's heads on either side, beautifully cast with excellent detail including the collar around the neck.
