Description

Superb early 20th century wind up gramophone in great condition. The cabinet is made from oak, both solid and veneers whilst it's style is mainly 17th century but with highly unusual brass hinges that are straight from the Aesthetic movement circa 1880. It plays as it should and the motor has been serviced. The 78 records are readily available and we will provide a small selection to get you going also a number of needles.
