Description

It's not often one can say a piece of furniture is totally unique but on this occasion I think it is apt. A totally unique design Regency 3 drawer mahogany canterbury. This is a beautiful elegant piece of furniture of great quality. The canterbury stands on this turned mahogany legs with original brass castors. It has three mahogany lined drawers all with their original brass knobs. The top section is a pleasing design. The drawers are all cock beaded and there is a double reed moulding around the middle. The whole piece is in very good original, un-touched condition with no repairs anywhere that I can see. Nice colour with a waxed finish. I have never seen a Regency canterbury of this design before anywhere. SIZE; 20" by 15" by 32" high CIRCA; 1810
