Description

Anatolian Turkish Milas, handwoven rug, approximately 7'9" x 5'10", dating from the early mid C20th. This rug has a terracotta field with row of 5 medallions, framed by multiple repeating borders. An old hand knotted rug with, short fringes to both ends. Wool pile and foundations. A good old rug with some wear and signs of use, but full of charm and ready for use. Dimensions: This rug measures approximately 236 cm long including fringes, and 178 cm wide. Condition: Please see the pictures for details of the items condition. - This rug is in reasonable condition, commensurate with its age. A little wear to pile, some wear to the fringes. A spilt through the foundations across the warp. This could easily be repaired. Odd minor marks. A reasonably regular shape for a handwoven rug. Ready for use. - As with all vintage & antique furniture there will be signs of use, marks, wear & tear, etc.
