Description

A hard to find and scarce combination Vesta and Sovereign case beautifully decorated with an all over engraved design. The front has a circular cartouche, which is vacant and could be engraved with initials if desired. The Vesta's sprung hinge is in excellent working order and of course has the strike to the outside. The Sovereign case is opened by pressing the small little button at the end of the ball finial, and just snaps back shut. Fully hallmarked in numerous places for Birmingham 1901 together with the makers initials D & F into two conjoined circles for the highly regarded silversmith, Deakin & Francis. Excellent condition and measuring 3 1/4" long (including ring) x 1 1/4" wide. Item ID: 32627 ----- FREE Worldwide Registered Airmail Directly From London, England
