Description

Impressive dark oak dresser made in the nineteenth century in the Jacobean taste with carved features & raised mirror back with pillared canopy. Clearly a well used & loved antique of great charm & character. Exceptional quality carving with the main cupboard doors featuring lions rampant within their carved panels. The carved crest piece fits on dowel pegs & is easily removed. Mirrored raised back is also easily removed if a flat top dresser is wanted as it is fixed with a single screw. Dresser base 99cm tall, with mirror back 105 cm tall & 24cm high crest piece
