Description

This is a fabulous, and predominately 17th century carved oak court cupboard, dated 1639 and initialled I.I.P. There have been some repairs done to this court cupboard, although you would undoubtedly expect this with an item of this age. The locks and handles are replacements and some of the carving appears to have been added later, but the overall result is an item of great charm and presence and also of great usefulness. The carving is of the type that was prevalent at the time, with geometric and lozenge designs accompanied by rosette carved roundels on the upper doors. The colour is a sumptuous rich antique oak with a good wax patinated surface, which definitely contributes to giving this court cupboard "the look". If you are interested in this item, it is wise to enquire straight away. Listed items are advertised elsewhere and are constantly being sold and withdrawn from the site.
