Description

A gorgeous late 18th century antique oak four panel mule chest. The large antique oak mule chest has a two plank removable lid that opens to reveal a spacious interior, with a small candle box to the left hand side. The antique oak mule chest has a four panel front, with three fitted drawers below. Each drawer has a decorative brass backplate and teardrop handle. Raised on four block feet. Item Ref; M-2828 . DIMENSIONS: Height – 89cm / Width – 126cm / Depth – 52cm . CONDITION REPORT: In good antique condition throughout with some signs of age. There is surface wear in places including age-related marks, scratches and minor dents to the lid surface, front and sides (pictured). There are also a few small wood splits to the right side of the chest (pictured), however this doesn't affect the overall integrity of the product. There is also evidence of historical woodworm, however this is now long gone and has been fully treated as a precaution. The antique oak mule chest remains structurally solid and sound, with the drawers running well.
