Description

A superb quality oak bureau from the 1920's and much above average quality. The sloping fall is heavily carved which follows through to the drawer surround and the Elizabethan style legs. The stretchered base makes for a very solid stance and the condition throughout is very good for it's 100 years. The fitted interior is very clean and still retains it's original leather. With working lock and key ready to use and enjoy. Height to Work Surface - 76cm = 30 inches

Internal Ref: B-482
