Description

An unusual estate made 18th century enclosed cabinet on chest of small proportions, constructed from walnut, fruitwood and elm. The cabinet on chest comes apart into two sections, with the top being decorated with arcaded geometric panels and applied mouldings. The doors open to reveal a fitted interior consisting of large and small drawers along with a few secret compartments. Below the cabinet are two long drawers, the top one having a lockable drawer and key. The cabinet top does have a working lock but no key is present. This piece has a lovely colour and is in excellent condition.
