Description

Good quality set of eight Regency mahogany dining chairs with green leather drop-in seats. Reeded legs and carved cross rails. Two carvers with scroll arms and six single chairs. The sizes below are for the carver chairs. The single chairs are 86cm high, 46cm wide, 50cm deep. Circa 1820. In very good restored condition. Some repairs to the backs of the chair tops (where they have probably come loose over the years) which have been well restored and disguised. The seat leather is in good condition and the upholstery is firm. Some historic worm under the seats which has been treated.
