Description

A lovely burr walnut stationery cabinet dating from the late 19th / early 20th Century. It has a lovely warm patina and a sloped front with brass escutcheon. The doors open out to reveal a series of racks for holding papers and letters. There is also a pen tray and two glass inkwells and below this there is a large drawer which is released by pulling a small brass rod. It is in good condition and although it has been used it has been well looked after over the years. There are a few small knocks and marks around the outside and the inkwells are not original but overall it displays very well and comes with a working key. It has been lightly cleaned and polished and is ready for use. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask. Tracked UK delivery £10.
