Description

An unusual Old Sheffield Plated lidded tankard. Bearing no makers marks, but the lid is inset with a George III coin dating to 1787. Having a very decorative thumb piece and a rare reeded edge. With a visible interior seam and a turned wooden base. The interior has a false bottom. The condition is good overall but with signs of regular use. There are a couple of patches of copper bleed to the body and raised edges and the base rim is fairly ragged. The internal base is slightly discolored. Weight approx 699g. Height approx 19.5cm Base diameter approx 12cm
