Description

A beautiful English solid or sterling silver heart shaped box with exquisite all over repousse decoration and a crimped edge to base and hinged lid. The domed top has a central cartouche with a very aristocratic armorial crest which looks to be a mythical goat's head. The interior of the box is gilded with a full hallmark to the base (also a partial hallmark to the lid) for London 1896 together with makers initials C.C for Colen Hewer of Cheshire. The underside is also blessed with a stamped retailer's mark for "Jays 142 & 144 Oxford St. W" (in London's fashionable West End). A good heavy gauge and in excellent condition, measuring 1 3/4" wide x 2". Item ID: 32622 ----- FREE Worldwide Registered Airmail Directly From London, England
