Description

Very large 19th century Chinese or Sino Tibetan bronze bowl/jardiniere, c1880. This is a fine quality example, well cast and heavy at 7.3kg. In octagonal form it is beautifully decorated with 8 panels surrounding the main body of the bowl. Each panel depicts a dragon/mythical creature in stylised form with foliage. The rim is also highly decorated and the bowl stands proudly on 4 large figural supports again depicting the head of a dragon/mythical creature. The bowl has taken on good colour/patina following years of use. Overall condition is good with only minor surface wear/marks/rubbing consistent with age and use. Please refer to the detailed photographs and feel free to contact me if you would like to view the item or have any questions. Price includes FREE UK delivery. Please contact me regarding international shipping. Size: 33cm diameter x 24cm tall, weight 7.3kg.
